MARKET INTERPRETATION

The real estate market in Beaconsfield (Beaurepaire) is currently in a buyer's market, with a moderate advantage for buyers based on current supply levels relative to sales activity. With approximately 6.1 months of inventory and an average selling time of 76 days, buyers currently have greater choice in the market while homes that are competitively priced continue to attract interest and sell within typical timeframes. Over the past year, the median sale price increased from $863,000 to $942,500, representing a 9.21% year-over-year increase. Accurate pricing and proper presentation remain important factors in achieving optimal results.
